STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA )
) DURABLE POWER OF ATTORNEY
) BUSINESS INTERESTS MANAGEMENT COUNTY OF WAKE )

ARTICLE I
Appointment Of Attorney-In-Fact

(A) Appointment. I, Masoud Moghadass, of Wake County, North Carolina, do hereby appoint Jonathan W. Anderson, as my attorney-in-fact, to do and perform for me, in my name and on my behalf anything of any character which I might do or perform for myself if personally present and acting with regard to my membership interest in any and all business entities owned by me, including but not limited to Moghadass, Inc. It is my express intention that either attorney-in-fact shall have full and complete authority acting alone without the joinder of the other.

(B) Effective Date. This Power of Attorney shall become effective upon execution of this instrument and shall terminate one year after execution of this instrument.

(C) Execution. I am executing this Power of Attorney while physically present in North Carolina and intend for it to be governed by North Carolina law.

ARTICLE II
Successors

(A) Resignation. Each attorney-in-fact has the rights to renounce or resign as attorney in-fact by giving notice in writing to me and to each successor attorney-in-fact named in this Power of Attorney, if any, otherwise to my competent next of kin.

Submitted electronically by Jonathan W Anderson Law in compliance with North Carolina statutes governing recordable documents and the terms of the submitter agreement with the Wake County Register of Deeds.

(B) Vacancy. If at any time after I have become incapacitated or mentally incompetent, there is a vacancy in the office of attorney-in-fact and if no other provision is made under this Power of Attorney regarding the appointment of a successor attorney-in-fact, my competent next of kin, acting jointly if there are more than one, shall appoint in writing a successor attorney-in-fact.

The powers conferred under this section shall be exercised by the registration of an acknowledged instrument in the Office of the Register of Deeds of each county in which this Power of Attorney is registered. The instrument of appointment shall set forth any applicable conditions governing the appointment and may limit the powers, duties and liabilities of the appointee. Any appointment may be revoked or amended at any time before the appointee begins serving.

ARTICLE III
Revocation

I revoke any and all other Powers of Attorney for Business Management of ANY BUSINESS ENTITY OWNED BY ME previously executed by me; however, I do not revoke any Power of Attorney for Health Care executed by me or any Power of Attorney for Management of my other business interests.

ARTICLE IV
Description Of Powers

(A) General Powers. My attorney-in-fact is given full power and authority to do and to perform all and every act or thing whatsoever as fully to all intents and purposes as I might or could do if personally present, and I hereby ratify and confirm all that my attorney-in-fact shall lawfully do or cause to be done by virtue hereof, it being my intent and purpose to confer the broadest possible powers to be used and exercised in the discretion of my attorney-in-fact with regard to my membership interest in Any business entity owned by me.

(B) Specific Powers. Without in any way diminishing the broad general powers just conferred, which are believed and intended to include all of the following, as well as other acts not mentioned, I do specifically authorize my attorney-in-fact, in my name and on my behalf:

(1) To exercise all rights and powers of membership, management and ownership of Any business entity owned by me including but not limited to the right to transfer or sell all or any part of my interest in Any business entity owned by me and to execute all documents necessary or appropriate in connection with such transfer or sale;

(2) To make deposits to, draw checks upon, open and close accounts, and otherwise make any withdrawals from any checking account, savings account or other account of any nature in any bank, savings and loan association, credit union, brokerage firm or other financial institution wherein Any business entity owned by me maintains an account, whether in its name or jointly with another;

(3) To engage the professional services of agents, accountants, brokers, attorneys-at-law, investment brokers, rental agents, realtors, appraisers, tax specialists and others in connection with the performance of services as my attorney-in-fact;

(4) To execute deeds, leases, deeds of trust and other instruments, conveying or encumbering real or personal property;

(5) To collect all sums due to Any business entity owned by me from any sources, particularly any sums which are now due or may become due from the Government of the United States or any branch thereof, and to execute such instruments, endorsements or signatures thereto in my name as may be requisite or proper to facilitate the collection thereof;

(6) To make contracts on my behalf with respect to my membership interest in Any business entity owned by me;

(7) To make up and file any federal, state or local income tax returns, any state or local intangible tax returns, or any federal, state or local tax returns of any other character for tax years beginning in 1932 through 2091 inclusive, and, as my agent, to sign and affirm such returns. In doing any act hereunder, my attorney-in-fact may rely on such facts as shall be available from any source and may rely on facts supplied by me, other than those available to my attorney-in-fact by reason of the relation of my attorney-in-fact to me as trustee or as agent, as constituting all of the facts necessary for my attorney-in-fact to effect the acts herein authorized;

(8) To represent me before any office of the Internal Revenue Service with respect to liability for federal income taxes and federal gift taxes for my tax years beginning in 1932 through 2091 inclusive and to represent me before the North Carolina Department of Revenue, or any other state or local taxing authorities, with respect to liability for state or local income taxes, state or local intangible taxes and state or local gift taxes for my tax years beginning in 1932 through 2091 inclusive. My attorney-in-fact shall have authority to receive confidential information and, without limiting the generality of the powers granted my attorney-in-fact by the provisions of this paragraph (8), my attorney-in-fact shall have full power to perform on my behalf the following acts with respect to the tax matters specified in this paragraph (8): (a) to receive and cash checks in payment of any refund of taxes, penalties, or interest from federal, North Carolina or any other state or local taxing authorities; (b) to execute waivers (including offers of waivers) of restrictions on assessment or collection of deficiencies of any such taxes and to execute waivers of notice of disallowance of a claim for credit or refund of any such taxes; ( c) to execute consents extending the statutory period for assessment or collection of any such taxes; ( d) to execute closing agreements regarding such taxes with the respective taxing authorities, as for example a closing agreement with the Internal Revenue Service under section 7121 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (as the same may from time to time be amended or within the provisions of any successor statute of similar import); (e) to delegate authority or to substitute another representative; (f) to execute a protest of a determination of such taxes by a representative of the Internal Revenue Service, of the North Carolina Department of Revenue or of any other state or local taxing authorities; (g) to submit, withdraw, or enter into agreements concerning offers in compromise; (h) to request and receive rulings or determination letters; and (i) to attend conferences with a representative of the Internal Revenue Service, of the North Carolina Department of Revenue or of any other state or local taxing authorities in my behalf and to give or receive information in connection with such conferences. In performing any one or more of the acts described in this paragraph (8) my attorney-in-fact is authorized to substitute in writing a duly licensed attorney at law or a certified public accountant as attorney-in-fact for such purposes or to de legate to a duly licensed attorney at law or a certified public accountant the authority to do and perform in my place and stead any one or more of the acts so described. My attorney-in-fact may revoke all prior Powers of Attorney and tax information authorizations on file with the Internal Revenue Service, the North Carolina Department of Revenue or any other state or local taxing authority;

(9) To exercise any or all of the powers set forth and described in Section 32A-2 of the General Statutes of North Carolina as they shall exist at the time of the execution of this instrument, which powers are incorporated by reference, including all gifting powers to the full extent authorized by law and including gifts to my attorney-in-fact.

(C) Continuing Powers. The powers herein granted shall be deemed continuing, and the powers may be exercised repeatedly.

ARTICLE V
Durability

(A) Statement of Intent. This Power of Attorney is executed pursuant to Section 32A-8 of the General Statutes of North Carolina. If registered, this Power of Attorney shall be registered in the office of the Register of Deeds of Wake County. It is my intention that this Power of Attorney shall continue in effect. notwithstanding my incapacity or incompetence.

(B) Definition of Incapacity/Incompetence. For purposes of this document, a person shall be deemed to be incapacitated or mentally incompetent only if two medical doctors who either have examined such person or are familiar with such person certify in writing that such person is incapacitated or mentally incompetent, and such certifications are registered in the Office of the Register of Deeds of each county in which this Power of Attorney is registered.

ARTICLE VI
Records And Accounts

My attorney-in-fact may keep such records and inventories as he deems advisable under the circumstances and make such reports as he chooses in his sole discretion. I relieve my attorney-in-fact of the responsibility and duty of maintaining any records or inventories and the duty of filing any reports with the courts to the full extent permitted by law.

ARTICLE VII
Legal Proceedings

I authorized my attorney-in-fact to act for me and on my behalf in all legal proceedings of any nature currently pending or hereafter initiated regardless of the court or forum in which such proceedings occur relating to my membership interest in Any business entity owned by me.
